

Want to become an entrepreneur while attending veterinary school? ...and support your avian/exotic animal club at the same time?

HARRISONS' VETERINARY STUDENT PROGRAM

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU:

- Start with a free $250 credit with which to make your first purchase.
- Receive a deep discount (20% below wholesale) for sales to fellow students and faculty.
- Take advantage of the discounts for your own pets.
- Receive educational and promotional materials (brochures, rack cards) to support your growing enterprise.
- Gain knowledge and experience with these products that will prepare you for success following graduation.
- Develop business skills while you are still in school by responsibly clearing balances on time and designating profits for subsequent orders and club activities and guest speakers.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR US:

- We believe that working with our bird food products will provide you with a basic understanding of the role nutrition plays in avian medicine and introduce you to the "well bird" avian practice concept.
- Your experience with the HEALx animal wellness products will familiarize you with effective complementary therapies in all species.
- Because one of our goals is to increase the competence and confidence of practitioners in working with exotic pets, this introduction at the student level may encourage new graduates with a goal of a traditional "dog and cat" practice to also consider seeing avian/exotic species (at least to help clients choose an appropriate pet and help prevent disorders).

The Harrison's' Pet Products staff is available to help with product or order advice.
